POSITION: INSTRUCTOR OF ENGLISH
Full-time, 10-Month, Tenure-Track Position

ANTICIPATED START DATE: Fall 2015 Semester

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Master's Degree in English required. Excellent teaching, communication, and interpersonal skills as well as computer literacy. Must have demonstrated success in computer classroom technology (Blackboard, ePortfolios, etc.), and the ability to utilize reflective, interactive pedagogical teaching techniques. Evidence of strong skills and abilities in the following areas: development and teaching of traditional and online courses, program development, classroom strategies, assessment techniques, and academic advising. Should also have an understanding of the needs of the community college student and have track record of effectiveness and capability in working with a diverse population. Must be able to teach English Composition and related courses.

Applicants who do not meet the minimum qualifications as stated are encouraged to put in writing precisely how their background and experience have prepared them for the responsibilities of this position and by providing appropriate references. Exceptions to the degree requirements may be made for compelling reasons.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Prior college level teaching experience at a community college and experience with technological innovation in teaching are preferred.

RESPONSIBILITIES: This instructor is expected to teach twenty-four credit hours per academic year in the areas of English Composition and related courses. Additional responsibilities include course, program, and curriculum development; development of new instructional techniques; student advising; development of and participation in special college projects; and participation in departmental, college, and community service activities consistent with the mission of the College. This instructor is also required to participate in commencement and convocation activities as well as special college meetings. Teaching schedule may include evenings and/or weekends.
